

Kings Are In Favor Again As Europe Seeks Way Out Of Wreck Ex-Kaiser Caused

By EUGENE J. YOUNG.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Kings and thrones are again in favor in Europe. American exponents of democracy—in their unworldly mind, with the riches of nature at their disposal—have been hectoring them, saying that the monarchical idea has gone into eclipse and that the democratic spirit has taken a hold on the old world. They will be surprised before long to see the effects of the reaction toward monarchy, which is now sweeping over Europe. They will see rulers restored, not against the

Health Authorities Alarmed At Increasing Death Rate From Kidney Diseases

60% of 100,000 Deaths Each Year Are Due to Neglect

In our pursuit of the mighty dollar, we too often are absorbed in the tasks of the day, pleasure, etc., to stop and consider our health. Stop now—think—kidney diseases caused 100,000 deaths last year. Are you a victim included in this year's toll? Why, you will exclaim, do so many die, why are the health authorities so concerned? The answer is, we built down our food, take to exercise, neglect our blood, and otherwise subject our system to all sorts of abuse. Is it any wonder then the kidneys become diseased and fall in their duties of purging ailments?

Points are constantly being created in our bodies and if the kidneys fail to carry them off they are absorbed by the blood causing ill health, and misery in the form of headaches, backaches, stired feeling, indigestion, etc. You may avoid considerable suffering if you heed nature's warnings and

.. HOROSCOPE ..

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1920.

ALTHOUGH the Sun and Uranus are in beneficent aspect early this day, Saturn and Venus are adverse, during the hours of afternoon and evening.

The mind should have rather a confident trend that the pursuit of high ambitions, while this configuration prevails.

The way is particularly favorable to persons in high place since it enables them to feel able to accomplish great things.

While the planetary government is conducive to egotism it is also helpful towards achievement.

Cancer is in a plane that is beneficial to the clergy and all who make appeal to the higher impulses of men and women.

The planet that governs the subconscious mind today opens it to good suggestions.

All charitable and philanthropic efforts are subject to the best results.

New movements that have for their basis the most progressive ideas are forecast.

This is not a lucky day for love affairs. Engagements contracted today may not be fortunate, especially if there is a great difference in age.

Marriage will continue to be numerous and the birth rate will increase.

It is prophesied that children born at this time will attain great beauty of face and strength of body.

Refuge in fashion again is foretold, but they may be slow in making their appearance. Modesty is to be conspicuous.

The welfare of children will become a public concern more than ever before.

Persons whose birthday it is may have rather a strenuous year.

Children born on this day may be fearless, energetic and clever.

Success is believed to depend largely on the hour of birth. (Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

to his parliament. Yet as the head of British society he has an influence which even the strongest premier cannot ignore.

The social power of Edward VII. which formed the entente that kept Germany from becoming a world power.

It was the social power of the pleasant young prince of Wales who was hereditary than millions of other young men—which has cemented feeling in the empire at a moment when many were of it in a head state of mind toward the mother country.

Welds Divergent Races.

This social power has been found a powerful solvent many times in the settlement of the troubles of the continent of Europe. Here we find a real "devil's brew" in the mixture of races, religions and economic rivalries.

Reasons which by all the laws of interdependence economically should be welded together into one unit are cut across by five racial and religious lines, by hatreds of centuries.

If the empires thus antagonized are not to bring constant clashing and ruin it is necessary to find some meeting point. Parliaments unaided cannot do it. They have been tried and they have engaged in disputing without action. Somebody with power and far-seeing vision in terms has always been found necessary.

The classic example in modern days before this upheaval was furnished by the German revolution beginning in 1848. Then, as now, an attempt was made to weld the Germans together in a parliamentary system which should approximate that which France was setting up. Its leaders wrangled and fought until the people welcomed the Hohenzollerns, couple which had then all under aocratic rule, but which brought order to the land.

Hapsburg Monarchy "a Necessity."

Similarly the old Hapsburg monarchy, with all its faults and terrors, was a necessity. It has been called a "geographical necessity." The Slavs and other Slavs on the north, the Romanians on the east, find their natural economic outlet into Hungary, on the plains and Hungary, in turn, had to turn south through the gloomy country to find its outlet to the sea.

These regions, divided by bitter racial and religious factions, cannot prosper except they act together. They have enjoyed peace and prosperity—much as they were—only under the averse rule of the Hapsburgs. Otherwise they have been continuously at war.

The peace conference did the best it could to lay out new nations on racial lines, but it literally played the nations with the living problems of the world. Consequently, powerful elements in the Danube basin and its tributary mountain regions are now working to restore something of the old conditions so the people may get on their feet again.

It is this situation, as well as the policy of taking the leadership of the Catholics, which has led France to back Hungary in her work of restoration, even to the extent of the restoration of the monarchy.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1920.

THIS is a fairly favorable day, according to astrology, but care should be exercised in all dealings. While Jupiter and Neptune are in beneficent aspect the Sun and Uranus are adverse.

Enter this away the natural impulse will be to push ahead, especially in enterprises that involve the most of vision.

Danger lies in being reckless or hasty in the pursuit of goals, for Uranus is in a plane believed to affect the judgment.

This should be a favorable day for starting on journeys, especially if the object is for commercial advancement.

Hotels have the best sort of a forecast for the winter, so far as patronage is concerned.

Winter resorts will prosper greatly since the severe season will send the wealthy in search of summer time.

This is not an auspicious omen for those who desire to find employment.

It is especially forbidding to all who hope for important appointments.

Astrologers who predicted that the eclipse of November 19 was threatening to the welfare of the English government, declare that the eclipse of November 17, 1920, is threatening to the welfare of the king.

Again they forecast danger of war between France, Italy, Prussia and Bohemia.

The opposition of Uranus continues to affect Washington, where there will be many severe judgments of persons and officials.

Trade and commercial treaties will be made in the near future at this time, it is predicted.

Social affairs will occupy special attention in many circles during the next few days.

There is unusual interest in cooking and household arts during the coming winter.

Again the stars will be recommended and changes in extraneous customs will be encouraged.

Persons whose birth date it is may have a quiet year in which business affairs proceed as usual.

Children born on this day may be inclined toward idleness.

They should be trained along practical lines of work. (Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

report of the Hungarian embassy at Vienna up which are related details of activities in Czechoslovakia and "successes" abroad, especially in France. While this report, the Vienna Arbeiter Zeitung says: "They bribe everybody, politicians and newspapers; they encourage the agricultural laborers not to carry out the harvest and the peasants not to deliver it. They have their spies everywhere. They are supported by the former Austro-Hungarian officers; and as helpers of the Horthy men the French are officiating."

In France playing with fire? If she encourages the monarchist class, will she not be playing with fire? The monarchists are ever becoming bolder in their demands on the government.

They are seeking to make themselves the champions of the church, and marshal Poch, Pichon, and Castelnau are doing so more than on occasion. I would not suggest that these soldiers are plotting to form a kingdom, but Poch is now being made the subject of bitter attacks from the Socialists.
